2017 ISEST

2017 International Symposium on Environmental Science and Technology (2017 ISEST) is to be held at Beijing Xijiao Hotel in Beijing, China, Sept. 19–22, 2017. It is a continuation of the previous five international symposia held in Beijing (2007), Shanghai (2009), Dongguan (2011), Dalian (2013) and Chongqing (2015) respectively. The purpose of this symposium is to provide an up-to-date discussion in the field of environmental science and technology in general.

Theme

Science and Technology in Sustainability of the Environment

Subjects and topics

Papers will cover fundamental aspects, technical approaches and/or the related areas as follows:

- Water Pollution and Water Quality Control
- Air Pollution and Air Quality Control
- Land (Soil, Waste Solid) Pollution and Remediation
- Waste Recycling
- Environmental Monitoring and Assessment
- Environmental Toxicology
- Environmental Chemistry
- Ecosystem Restoration
- Technology of Environmental Sustainability
- Biomass and Renewable Energy

During the symposium, there will be special session honoring Academician Guibin Jiang, and special session focusing on drinking water safety in honor of Prof. Jun Ma. Prof. Lingxue Kong will organize Session of Remediation of Contaminated Soil by Nano-Materials; Prof. Keping Yan will organize Session of Industrial Waste Gas and Waste Dust Treatment; Prof. Bo Wang and Prof. Yunhong Zhang will organize Session of PM_{2.5} Governance. These are not limited, topic focusing and more special sessions are in the process and to be announced later.

Some of the invited speakers and titles

Prof. Andy Cundy: Scalable Adsorbents for

Management of Problem Contaminants

Prof. Dion. D. Dionysiou: Advances in the Field of

Advanced Oxidation Processes for the Treatment of Cyanotoxins, Pharmaceuticals, Pesticides and Other Contaminants of Emerging Concern

Prof. David Waite: Recent Advances in Understanding and Use of Redox Processes in Capacitive

Deionisation Technologies for Water Treatment

Prof. Hyunook Kim: What Happens During Initial

Oxidant Demand Period

Prof. Jorge Gardea-Torresdey: Uptake of Nanoparticles

by Crop Plant Species. Biotransformation and

Toxicity: Current Knowledge and Future Perspectives

Prof. Renyi Zhang: Formation of Haze in China - Why

So Severe and Frequent

Prof. Virender Sharma: Activation of Ferrate in

Treatment of Micropollutants: Current Knowledge and Future Outlook

Instructions for extended abstracts or papers preparation

All those interested in presenting a contribution are invited to submit a proposed Title, Author(s) Name, Institution(with mailing address and e-mail address) and a 500–1000 words abstract that may include the purpose, results, significance of the contribution and comparison with the previous state of art to the secretariat.

The full papers should include a Title with the Name(s) of the Author(s) and Affiliation(s) of Author(s) and an Abstract of 150–200 words followed by sections including an introduction, the main body of text, conclusions, acknowledgements, and references. Papers are limited to 14 pages. Figures and tables should be embedded and not supplied separately.

Submission of extended abstracts or papers

Full papers or extended abstracts should be submitted through e-mail to ISESTCN@hotmail.com NO LATER THAN JULY 10, which is a deadline for full paper submission to be included into the printed Proceedings and CDs so as to distribute at the symposium. The author is welcome to state his preference for oral or poster session.
